FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 31, 1860.

To the Public.

THE SENTINEL, having double the circulation IN THE CITY, and more than treble OUT OF IT, of any other paper here, renders it far the cheapest and most desirable medium in Milwaukee for all classes of Advertisements.

EVERY BUSINESS MAN who consults his own interest, will avail himself of the columns of THE DAILY SENTINEL,—especially when he can do so at the same prices charged by other papers, and secure more than double the advantage of circulation.

This is no boast, but EVERY WORD TRUE.

News Digest.

The Connecticut Democratic Convention met at Hartford, yesterday, and after considerable wrangling, nominated a DOUGLAS electoral ticket. It is stated that the friends of BRECKINRIDGE will call another convention and nominate a separate ticket.

Extensive preparations are being made for the reception of Mr. SEWARD, at Detroit, on Tuesday next.

Senator DOUGLAS addressed a meeting in Raleigh, N. C., yesterday.

PATTERSON'S warehouse at Detroit, was destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss $15,000.

Mr. Codding's Appointments.

Mr. ICHABOD CODDING, one of the ablest and most popular speakers in the west, will address meetings in this State, at the following times and places:

Beloit, Wednesday,	Aug. 29
Brodhead, Thursday,	" 30
Janesville, Friday,	" 31
Delevan, Tuesday,	Sept. 4
Elkhorn, Wednesday,	" 5
Burlington, Thursday,	" 6
Racine, Friday,	" 7
Kenosha, Saturday,	" 8
Milwaukee, Monday,	" 10
Madison, Tuesday,	" 11

Mr. CODDING gives the assurance that he will meet his appointments punctually. We have no doubt that the people will flock in crowds to hear him.

The Tinkle-Tinkle Party Nonplussed.

We learn that the great hit made by the Wide-Awakes in name, costume and splendor of display, has thrown the managers of the BELL-EVERETT party into a quandary. They don't know what dodge to try in order to "head" this great Republican success.—Church bells, cow bells, and sleigh bells are nearly "played out;" the dodge did very well for once or twice, but since YANCEY dubbed the BELL men the "tinkle-tinkle party," it don't wear well.

So they have their wits to work to find some new device to prevent the Wide Awakes from stealing all the thunder and marching off with all the glory. The BELL-ringers are on the anxious seat, the tintinnabulation has dried up, the hullabaloo has gone silent, and the brazen oracles are dumb. "To your tents, oh Israel!" is the word of command to the faithful surviving followers of SAM.

While our unfortunate BELL EVERETT friends are ruminating upon the best means to retrieve their waning glory, let us gently whisper a suggestion in their ear. The great and primal symbol of their party—the American Eagle—has been too much forgotten. The royal fowl should be induced once more to rise upon their vision, with healing on his wings. Let them borrow a hint from the plumage, the talons and the shriek of the noble bird. Let them invent a uniform which shall be one part man and three parts American Eagle. Let them buy up all the good-looking feathers in the market, and rob all the turkey roosts in the Western States. With the spoils let them manufacture American stuffed Eagles by the score, to be mounted upon each ardent BELL-EVERETTITE, to march in winged procession through the streets, and to shriek for the Union from each gaping beak. Then let them call each meeting of the faithful "the gathering of the Eagles;" let them learn to imitate the shrill, piercing cry of the noble North American fowl; let them waken the echoes with shrieks, and make night hideous with yells; and if that don't head off the Wide Awake movement, we are afraid nothing will.

Senator Seward at Detroit.

Great preparations are making to welcome Senator SEWARD to Detroit, where he speaks on Tuesday next. There will be an immense outpouring of the people of Michigan to see and hear him. Large delegations are also expected from Ohio. The Detroit and Milwaukee Railway Company will take persons from here to Detroit and back, on this occasion, for five dollars. We hope that some of our Republicans will find time to pay their Detroit brethren a visit.

DOUGLAS CONCEDES LINCOLN'S ELECTION.—The following significant passage occurs in Mr. DOUGLAS' speech at Norfolk, as reported for the N. Y. Herald:

Mr. Douglas—Lincoln has no hope of being elected except through the efforts of the secessionists, who have divided the Democratic party. Supposing Breckinridge would carry every southern State—though it now seems he is not going to carry a single one by the people—still, by dividing the North, he gives every one of those States to Lincoln, thus allowing him to be elected by the popular vote.

The BRECKINRIDGE men concur in this opinion, but lay the blame upon DOUGLAS and his backers, who, they insist, have divided and destroyed the Democratic party, because the South would not swallow DOUGLAS.

VOTE OF NEW YORK.—In 1856, the popular vote for President in the Empire State was:

For Fremont	276,000
For Buchanan	195,000
For Fillmore	124,000

The Utica Herald thinks the vote this fall will stand as follows:

For Lincoln, the Fremont vote of 276,000, and half the Fillmore vote	338,000
For Douglas, the Buchanan vote, less 50,000
for Breckinridge, and half the Fillmore vote	268,000
For Breckinridge	50,000
	656,000

THE FOLLOWING was a toast at a supper given to the distinguished Senator from Ga., some time since: "ROBERT TOOMBS,—the living embodiment of Democratic principles." That's what has become of Democratic principles, then—consigned to the Toombs!

NEW JERSEY.—A Trenton correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser, estimates the vote as follows:

Lincoln and Hamlin	52,000
Douglas and Johnson	32,000
Breckinridge and Lane	20,000
Bell and Everett	4,000

NO FUSION IN NEW JERSEY.—The BRECKINRIDGE, DOUGLAS and BELL men supposed they had fused in New Jersey; but it turns out the thing will not work and each faction now runs its own ticket.

ALABAMA.—So far as heard from, the Democracy have not carried a single county in Alabama, the Bell men beating them in almost every instance.

A Query.

RUBICON, Dodge Co., Aug. 30, '60.

EDS. SENT:—During a conversation with a gentlemen last evening, he remarked that "the Postmaster General, (J. HOLT,) was dead, and another had been appointed some four months ago."

If that be the truth, I am certainly ignorant of it.

Please inform me of the truth in your next issue, and thus very much oblige an

"INQUIRER."

P. S.—"Honest Old ABE" will certainly receive three-fifths of the votes in this town next November. He is decidedly very popular among the masses, and is gaining strength every day.

[P. M. General HOLT is not dead, but alive and in the discharge of his duties. His wife, however, died a short time since, which fact may have given rise to the report our correspondent heard.—ED SENT.]

THE LAST SURVIVOR OF THE BATTLE OF BUNKER HILL.—There is now living in Acton, Maine, the only survivor of the battle of Bunker Hill. His name is RALPH FARNHAM. His age is 105 years. He has lately been visited by a correspondent of the Journal of Commerce, who found him in excellent health and in possession of all his faculties. He recollects distinctly the early events of his life, and spoke of an occurrence fresh in his memory, which took place when he was but four years old. Later occurrences are also fresh in his recollection. With other events he witnessed the surrender of BURGOYNE, and relates an anecdote connected with it. He says that, "after BURGOYNE'S surrender, General GATES erected a large marquee, and gave a dinner to the British officers; and when they were cracking their jokes in high glee, BURGOYNE said to Gen. GATES, 'Why, General GATES, you don't seem like a General; you look like an old Granny.' 'Well, replied General GATES, 'I am a very good one, then, for I delivered you of 10,000 soldiers.'"

Every year since he attained the age of a century, his neighbors have celebrated his birth-day, and it is their intention, if the old Serjeant lives to his hundred and sixth birth day, (July 7, 1861,) to celebrate it with unwonted brilliancy.

THE FLUNKEY FEVER IN NEW YORK.—New York is in a prime excitement over the coming Royal Highness. Magnificent schemes are brooding for the reception. Civic honors are being worked up, and a long string of startling demonements will follow the arrival. The sapient and pious Aldermen of that dense town, whose eyes already stick out with stolen fatness, are smiling complacently at one another and are giving to the winds the Japanese matters in the overpowering contemplation of a new and unparalleled swindle.

Whether they will bottle up the dirty water that shall have laved the cuticle of the Royal Highness and sell it at exhorbitant prices per vial, or whether they will turn out en regalia and assist the Prince to lay a corner stone somewhere, is at present unknown. It is, however, well known that the advent of Royalty will be money in the Aldermanic pockets, and all the snobs and the codfish aristocracy will do, or die. Who'd be a Prince in New York!

CONSTRUCTIVE DAMAGES.—The Secretary of War has awarded to WILLIAM DE GROOT the sum of one hundred and sixteen thousand dollars, as damages incurred under the contract for furnishing bricks for the Washington aqueduct. The bricks contracted for were not furnished, by reason of the failure of Congress to make the proper appropriation. The damages are constructive, or are for what his profits would have been had the appropriation been made, and he furnished the bricks. Were the present Administration to remain in power ten days beyond the close of its term, the whole country would be hopelessly bankrupt. It may be as it is.

WE SEE IT ANNOUNCED that Judge MILLER has adopted a new rule to go into effect in the United States District Court, the 1st of September. It provides that parties in civil cases may testify on their own behalf. Notice of the intended examination of parties must be given in writing, however, to the opposite party, at least thirty days before the term of the Court at which the case is at trial, accompanied with a statement of the facts to be testified to by the party. Depositions of parties may be taken, also, the same as those of other parties.

A NEW SCHEME.—Mr. ALEXANDER PARKINS, editor of the Clarke Journal, Virginia, has a new scheme for saving the Union. He would restore the Missouri Compromise, to satisfy the North, and to conciliate the South he would legalize the slave trade, allow the slaves to be represented in the government per capita, instead of by the three-fifth rule, repeal the tariff and establish direct taxation, and not tax the negroes. Mr. PARKINS calls this a new compromise. We should think so.

MR WESLEY, the business manager of the N. Y. Times, has withdrawn from that establishment, having sold out his interest (36-100ths) to some of the other partners. Mr. W. was engaged in founding the Times, and has conducted its affairs with eminent ability. Indeed, its success is probably due to his exertions quite as much as to any other cause.

HOW STANDS SEWARD AMONG HIS NEIGHBORS?—If Gov. Seward had received the Republican nomination for President at Chicago, I do not believe there would have been one hundred votes cast against him in the city of his home residence, where there is a population of about 10,000. His popularity is universal. He is beloved by all classes of people, irrespective of partizan predilections. No work of public utility is undertaken unless he has a leading hand in it. No philanthropic or benevolent movement is suggested without receiving his liberal and thoughtful assistance. On all sides, among all classes of politicians, I find that sentiments of respect and esteem prevail in favor of Gov. Seward, and no one refers to him without expressing unhesitatingly their entire confidence in his uprightness and unselfish public spirit. As a landlord, he is kind and lenient; as an adviser, he is frank and reliable; as a citizen, he is enterprising and patriotic; as a champion of what he considers to be right, he is dauntless and intrepid; and while warm and ardent in his political affinities and personal friendships, he never ceases to observe that degree of decorum and courtesy towards political and personal foes which one gentleman should expect from another.—Correspondence N. Y. Herald.

WHO TAKES?—A gentleman living in St. Paul, Minnesota, after traveling extensively through the country, has become fully satisfied that Lincoln will be the next President. Having heard some of the Douglasites of this city claim Illinois and Minnesota for Douglas, and also assert that Douglas will be elected, he has concluded to test their sincerity by offering them the following bets, viz:

$1,000 that Abraham Lincoln will get the electoral vote of Illinois.

$2,000 that Abraham Lincoln will get the electoral vote of Minnesota.

$2,000 that Stephen A. Douglas will get fewer electoral votes than any man running for the Presidency, except Houston.

These bets all to be taken together. The necessary authorities have been deposited at the Tremont House.

We object to betting on elections in toto, but there seems to be no other method to silence the blowers and strikers of Douglas than by endangering their pockets.—Chicago Press and Tribune.

Mr. Breckenridge to Speak.

A committee of Kentuckians have invited Mr. BRECKENRIDGE to a Barbecue, and the following is his response:

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug 21, 1860.

GENTLEMEN:—I have received your letter of the 18th inst., in which, on behalf of my friends of this Congressional District, you invite me to address the people, for the purpose of vindicating myself from the violent personal assaults made upon me since my nomination for the Presidency at Baltimore.

I have not proposed at any time to take part in the general political discussion of the day. To this letter, however, I recognize the signatures of many of my oldest and most cherished friends, whose wishes are with me almost commands; and, after some reflection, I have resolved to accept your invitation; not that I consider any defense necessary before my neighbors and constituents, but because it may be well to grasp together and refute, in a public and authentic manner, accusations remarkable for their number, their injustice, and the persistency with which they have been urged against me. I feel that it would be unjust to my principles, my friends and myself, to remain longer in silence beneath this torrent of defamation; and I hope to repel every charge which has been made, to the satisfaction of all candid and honorable men.

It will be agreeable to me to meet my fellow citizens on any day and at any place that you may select.

Very truly your friend,
JOHN C. BRECKENRIDGE.

The Statesman says: His friends have designated Sept. 5th as the time for the address, and NEAR LEXINGTON as the place of the meeting.

Re-Election of James S. Green.

Special dispatch to the St. Louis Bulletin.

JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 26, 1860.

The victory is ours. James S. Green's re-election to the U. S. Senate is now beyond doubt or contingency. Authentic and undoubted information received from the members of the Legislature, personally, gives the friends of Breckinridge in the two Houses ninety-six votes, being a clear majority in joint ballot.

THE DROUGHT IN THE COUNTRY.—There never was so dry a season in Wisconsin since it was known, as at the present time. In the western part of this county, where we visited yesterday, everything seems literally dried up. The cattle and stock of all kinds suffer very much for water, the most of them in the west part of this and Kenosha county, are drove daily from one and a half to six and sometimes eight miles, for water.—Some of the farmers in Brighton drive their cattle to Eagle Lake. Cattle and horses are suffering beyond comparison for want of water. The wells at the houses of the farmers and in the village of Burlington are, in most instances, dry. Ponds, that have invariably yielded water, are now dry, and water can with difficulty be found in them by digging, sometimes ten to twenty feet. Fox River was never called "fast," but it is now in a state of quietude that would astonish old settlers, and quiet the nerves of a maniac without morphine. The various attempts at rain have been essentially failures, and the heavens are indurated brass, and the earth powder and dust. If Prof. Espy was alive—living, he should be invoked to burn a forest and depluviate the famished earth—dead, he should be evoked to drop his mantle upon some worty successor, or what would be more agreeable and useful, descend himself in a single six weeks' flood, or in a shower heavy enough to wet two feet deep.—Racine Journal.

NOLLE PRASSED BY PROVIDENCE.—On Monday afternoon last, a woman named Johanna Sullivan was arrested by officer Bradford as a drunkard and vagrant. Before reaching the Station House, a pair of shoes, which she had concealed about her person, dropped to the pavement. The officer had reason to believe that they were stolen, and caused a charge of petit larceny to be preferred against her. Yesterday morning she was conveyed to the Police Court, and placed in the room set apart for female prisoners to await her trial. She was the only delinquent of her sex whose name appeared upon the docket, and finding herself "solitary and alone," she resolved to effect her escape or perish in the attempt. Accordingly, she concluded to use a lightning rod, which was close to the window, as her descending ladder, and make the perilous attempt of conveying herself to the ground—a distance of more than fifty feet—by clinging to it. She had not descended more than twelve feet, however, when, for some cause, she relinquished her hold and fell to the ground, dislocating her shoulders, and bruising her body terribly. She expired in a few moments. After a few convulsive struggles, she took a change of venue to a higher Court. Her body was conveyed to the North Street Station House, where an inquest was held, and a verdict rendered in accordance with the facts given above.—Cincinnati Gazette.

DECLINATION OF A COALITION ELECTOR.—Mr. Edward Huntington, of Rome, who was nominated for Elector for this County on the Bell-Douglas ticket, has formally declined that position. The letter was mailed from Rome on Wednesday last, and, though brief, was decided in its terms.

It is understood that Mr. Huntington, while declaring that John Bell is his first choice for President, of the candidates before the country, disapproves of the arrangement by which the ticket was made upon which his name appeared as elector, and deprecates the throwing of the election into the House, as full of excitement and agitation, if not of positive danger to the country. The election of Mr. Lincoln he deems greatly preferable to such a result.

Mr. Edward Huntington is a conservative gentleman, who has of late years voted the Democratic ticket, but was put on the coalition ticket by the Bell Everett men. His declination is a significant evidence of the feeling of the great body of conservatives.—Utica Herald, Aug. 27.

DEMOCRATIC TOLERATION.—At Fort Wayne, where Carl Schurz had appointed to speak, the Democrats had appointed a pole raising at the same time and place, to drown his voice with their cries. When he changed his appointment they made another pole raising for the same purpose, but the German Democrats resented the insult and frightened the contemptible leaders out of their scheme. But, resolved in some way to testify their hatred of the orator, and their contempt for his countrymen, one of them threw a large cabbage head through the window of the room where he was speaking, and struck Mr. P. P. Bailey, former editor of the Republican, a stunning blow on the neck.—It was thrown at Mr. Schurz, but happily missed him.

MURDER IN UTICA.—The body of Lucinda Magiunis, a young girl of fifteen, was found in the Canal at Utica, on Saturday last, by some boys who were engaged in fishing. The Coroner's jury found that deceased did not meet her death by drowning; but that she was strangled and then thrown into the water; that the handkerchief found about her neck was used to choke her; that her murderer clutched the handkerchief with one hand from behind, and with the other held her nose. George White, her lover, has been arrested on suspicion of having caused her death, but it is said he will be able fully to establish his innocence.

REV. DR. HAWES was requested to take charge of a small parish in Westchester Co. He declined because the salary was too small for the maintainance of his large family and education of his children. One of them replied, "the Lord will take care of them; he has promised to hear the young ravens when they cry, and provide for them." "Very true," said the reverend gentleman, "but he has not promised to provide for the young Hawks."

THE London College of Surgeons, grave and learned men, had Tom Sayers down not long ago, to test the weight of the blow he gives, not on any of the doctors, but on a machine which is made like a stomach, and recedes with the blow, registering the number of pounds' weight it gets. The figures to Tom's credit are 329 pounds, which is something like a lively sack of flour hitting you, every time he gets in a fair blow.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Tuesday forenoon, the 21st inst., a little child of Wm. Warner, caught its clothes on fire, from the effects of which, it died the next morning. The circumstances attending this terrible calamity were these. The mother had put some lighted shavings in the stove and had stepped out but a moment, and returned to see her little pet enveloped in flames. The bereaved family have the sympathy of our villagers.—New Lisbon Rep.

Departure of Steamers.

FOR THE RIVERS.

The steamer Huron leaves Olmsted's Dock, every evening at 8 o'clock, for Port Washington, Sheboygan, Manitowoc and Two Rivers.

FOR BUFFALO.

Screw steamers, with good accommodations, leave the different transportation docks every day, for Buffalo.

FOR OSWEGO AND ODDENSBURGH.

One of the Northern Transportation Co's screw steamers sails for the above ports every day, from the Co's dock at the M. & Mis. R. R. depot, touching at nearly all intermediate ports.

FOR COLLINGWOOD.

The Collingwood Line of screw steamers leave semi-weekly from Dousman's dock, foot of East Water Street, connecting at Collingwood with the Northern Railway of Canada, for the East.

FOR GREEN BAY.

The screw steamer Wabash Valley makes weekly trips to the above port starting from Olmsted's dock

Republican Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that there will be a business meeting of the Republican Central Club, at Head Quarters, in Albany Building, next Wednesday evening, Sept. 5th, at 7 o'clock.

The committee on finance and other arrangement committees are expected to report. Let there be a full attendance.

Fourth Ward Republican Club.

The Republicans of the Fourth Ward are summoned to meet at Plankinton's Hall, on Friday evening, August 31st, for the purpose of making arrangements to engage properly in the reception of Hon. W. H. SEWARD, and to consider other matters of importance.

BY ORDER OF THE PRESIDENT.

Population of Milwaukee.

The Enquirer of last evening in publishing the population of Milwaukee, as returned by the Census Marshals, gives the population of the Ninth Ward as that of both the 6th and 9th Wards, and consequently makes the total population of the city 4,150 less than it actually is according to the census.—The Marshal's official organ should not have made such a blunder. The following is the correct population of the city, if the Enquirer's figures for the other Wards are right:

First and Seventh Wards	11,479
Second Ward	6,087
Third do	5,037
Fourth do	5,020
Fifth do	4,847
Sixth do	4,100
Eighth do	1,953
Ninth do	6,650
Total	45,323

In 1850, the population of the city was 20,061, and by the State Census in 1855, it was 30,118. These figures show an increase of about 125 per cent, our population having more than doubled in ten years.

POLITICAL TEXT BOOK FOR 1860.—This, to all who take an interest in politics, is a valuable book of reference. It includes a brief and important account of the several Conventions, to nominate candidates for the Presidency; the platforms of the different parties; the history of the Kansas struggle and of the action of Congress on the subject of the Public Lands; the most notable speeches and letters of LINCOLN, SEWARD, DOUGLAS, BELL, BRECKINRIDGE, &c; and returns of all the Presidential elections since 1836. It is full, well-arranged and reliable. The work is for sale by TUNIS & Co, Wisconsin street, where all the latest publications can always be found.

THE Celtic-Douglas Democratic evening People's Press, published for the fun of the thing, and to say a good word for PADDY COON occasionally, can't get over the Sixth Ward Republican demonstration. The reporter of that sheet having gone to said meeting with cotton in his ears, so that he might be able to say when he got back, that he heard no cheers for LINCOLN, now claims that there was no meeting at all on that night, and that it was all a Republican illusion. Possibly!

BAIL OF FREDERICKS.—Will the Sentinel please say whether J. F. Potter, the Republican candidate for Congress of this District, did not procure, or cause to be procured, bail for Mr. Fredericks, who was under arrest for violation of law?—News of yesterday.

Suppose Mr. POTTER did render this friendly service to Mr. FREDERICKS, what of it? Is it any crime to help procure bail for a person under arrest? We don't remember that the News made a row when its friends, LYNCH and GARDINER, were bailed out.

FRESH VEGETABLES.—Our markets, this year, are abundantly supplied with the best of vegetables in great variety, which are sold at lower prices than we have ever known here. There are many excellent market gardens in and about the city, which furnish these supplies; and several of our well-to do farmers in the adjoining towns send in daily wagon loads of fine vegetables. Yesterday, our friend, Dr. CHASE, who owns and occupies one of the most desirable farms in the town of Lake, presented us with a large mess of ripe tomatoes and sweet corn, for which many thanks.

PRESENTED TO THE PRINCE OF WALES.—The Montreal correspondent of the New York Herald gives a list of the Americans presented to the Prince of Wales, at his levee, last Saturday. Under the head of "Wisconsin," we find the name of "B. BAGNALL, United States Army." This should doubtless read U S. Navy. At least we remember that our fellow-citizen, Mr. BAGNALL, occupied a position on board the U. S. steamer Michigan, some years since

POPULATION OF MILWAUKEE.—The population of Milwaukee, like that of its sister cities, falls below the anticipations of the people. We learn that it is only 38,000, instead of 60,000, as was expected.—Chicago Democrat.

The population of Milwaukee, according to the recent census, is over 45,000. Chicago, we learn, footed up nearly 60,000, as the census was taken while a large excursion from Milwaukee was in town.

FARMS IN WAUKESHA.—There are some of the best farms in the State to be found in Waukesha County, and several of them are for sale. Our friend CRUMMET, at the LE BRUN Billiard Saloon, is agent for their sale, and has an excellent map of the county in his office. He is well acquainted with the farms in question, and can give purchasers all the information they want.

BASE BALL MATCH.—A match at Base Ball, between the first nines of the Milwaukee and Excelsior Clubs of this city, will be played to-morrow afternoon, at the old Fair Grounds on Spring street hill. As the parties are well matched the contest will be well worth seeing.

Meeting to Consider the Subject of Horse Rail Roads.

The citizens of the Second, Fourth, Sixth and Ninth Wards met last night at the Wigwam in the Sixth Ward, to take under consideration and discuss the merits of the QUENTIN and DAVIS ordinance.

J. B. SCHRAM called the meeting to order.

G. P. GREEN was nominated President, and J. P. SEAMAN, Secretary.

Mr. SCHUMACHER was then called for to state the object of the meeting.

Dr. HUEBSCHMANN then took the floor, and spoke in favor of the DAVIS ordinance, explaining, also, the reasons why he voted in the Board of Aldermen for the DAVIS ordinance.

On motion a committee on resolutions was appointed, consisting of A. HILL, J. B. SCHRAM and R. W. PIERCE.

Mr. QUENTIN was then called upon, and gave a most able history of the several ordinances, reprimanding those representatives of the several wards, who expressed themselves in favor of the so-called DAVIS ordinance, which does not give the slightest guarantee to the city to insure its completion. It is true, he said, we do not propose to fill up all the streets in the city with Horse Railroads, to deceive the people and secure the passage of our ordinance by false pretences, but I will pledge myself that the Quentin Ordinance shall be faithfully executed. My past acts are evidence of my intention to fulfill anything I undertake.

The Committee on Resolutions then being ready to report, offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the streets in the 2d, 4th, 6th, and 9th Wards of this city, are the property of the citizens of the said Wards, appropriated by them to be used by the the public for common traveling, carrying and conveying purposes, but with an ultimate view to the benefit of the owners themselves, and that it is therefore contrary to all justice to make any use of the said street which will prove destructive of the best interests of the real owners.

Resolved, That the conveyance of persons through the streets by way of Horse Railroads is a new and uncommon way, not included in those purposes for which the streets have been originally laid out, and that therefore whenever the question arises about giving or not giving to companies the right to use our streets for the purpose of constructing Horse Railroads, the interest of the owners, their property and business, ought to be first consulted, before the interests of companies can be taken into consideration.

Resolved, That while a bona fide use of our streets for Horse Railroad purposes would probably promote our best interests, an abuse of the institution of Horse Railroads would very materially endanger the same.

Resolved, That we as Milwaukeeans have made unfortunate experience in the instability of ordinances and in the bad faith of chartered companies, and that we do not therefore consider ordinances and charters as any safe guard for our rights and interests whatever, but that we moreover look to good men, having common interest with ourselves as our best guaranty against the abuse of the right of constructing Horse Railroads in our streets.

Resolved, That we consider the incorporators of the charter, known as the "Quentin charter," as a body of such good men; and that we feel that they have associated for their and our common interest only, and that we are anxious for their success, and that we therefore pray them not to flinch, but to exert all their influence and energy to obtain the passage of their charter in our Common Council.

Resolved, That we hereby respectfully entreat the Aldermen and Councillors of our four wards to do their utmost to procure the passage in the Common Council of the Quentin charter, but if any one of them for reasons unknown to us, should not feel disposed to comply with this, our wish, we still think this a case of so vital importance to us, that we would greatly honor him for giving us a chance to become otherwise represented.

Resolved, That the question of Horse Railroads in these four west Wards concerns us vastly more than the citizens of any other part of the city; and that we therefore respectfully beseech the representatives in the Common Council of the other Wards of our city to lay no impediments to the fulfilling of our wishes as pronounced in these resolutions.

Resolved, That the citizens of the Fifth and Eighth Wards are invited to co-operate with us in procuring the passage of the Quentin charter and substitute.

Resolved, That it fills us with the highest indignation to learn from the communication of J. B. Cross to the Board of Councilors at their meeting August 28th, that there is any man who dares to claim the right to run with locomotive railroad through our streets, thereby destroying our property and business, and perhaps reducing many of us to absolute poverty.

Resolved, Therefore, that whenever we shall see ruthless hands lifted to strike a mortal blow at our dearest interests—politics shall cease to separate us, and we will as a unit step up in immediate defence of our legitimate rights and interests.

Mr. PHELPS then made some appropriate remarks, expressing himself in favor of Mr. QUENTIN'S views in relation to the ordinance. It was then moved that the proceedings of the meeting, together with the resolutions, should be printed in the city papers, and a copy thereof presented to each member of the Railroad Committee and Common Council.

Meeting then adjourned sine die.

GREENBUSH, July 31, 1860.

Douglas and Dred Scott.

The official syllabus of the decision pronounced by the U. S. Supreme Court, in the DRED SCOTT case, is a stumbling block to the News. Aware that the decision and Mr. DOUGLAS' acceptance of it, scatter "Squatter Sovereignty" to the winds, it endeavors to misrepresent the points laid down by the Federal Court. We quote them once again:

"Every citizen has a right to take with him into the territory any article of property which the Constitution of the United States recognizes as property."

"The Constitution of the United States recognizes slaves as property, and pledges the Federal Government to defend it. And Congress cannot exercise any more authority over property of that description than it may constitutionally exercise over property of any other kind."

"That act of Congress, therefore, prohibiting a citizen of the United States taking with him his slaves when he removes to the territory in question to reside, is an act of authority over private property which is not warranted by the constitution, and the removal of the slaves did by his owner to that territory, gave him no title to freedom."

"While it remains a territory, Congress may legislate over it within the scope of its constitutional powers in relation to citizens of the United States, and may establish a Territorial Government, and the form of this local government must be regulated by the discretion of Congress; but with the powers not exceeding those which Congress itself by the constitution is authorized to exercise over citizens of the United States in respect to their rights of property."

Now in answer to this, the News sets up the plea that the syllabus is not "an official exposition" of the decision, while it quotes the opinion of Mr. REVERDY JOHNSON, one of the lawyers in the case, in opposition to the statement of the Reporter. Or, in other words, the News pretends to think that a lawyer who argues a case knows better what the Court decides than the Court itself; for the Reporter is but the mouth-piece of the Court. The absurdity of this pretence is too apparent to need contradiction.

The News says:

We can appreciate the motive of Yancey and his followers in misrepresenting that decision, but we cannot reconcile the course of the SENTINEL in regard to it, with its anti-slavery professions. If it sincerely desires to have the introduction of slavery into a Territory prevented, why does it maintain that the Supreme Court has decided that neither Congress nor a Territorial Legislature can prohibit it? How is slavery to be excluded if there is no power vested in either Congress or a Territorial Legislature to exclude it?

That is just what we want to know and embodies the precise reason why Republicans protest against, and denounce this decision. It is because we are "sincerely desirous" to prevent the introduction of Slavery into the Territories that we hold up to popular reprobation the decree of the U. S. Court, that neither Congress, nor the people, nor the Legislatures of the Territories, can exclude Slavery therefrom. Mr. DOUGLAS and the Democratic party accept and acquiesce in that decision as a finality, and in so doing abandon their vaunted doctrine of "Squatter Sovereignty" and give up the entire domain of the United States to the incursions of SLAVERY. There is but one hope to stay the progress of Slavery in this country and that is the triumph of the Republican party. The issue before the people is plain and direct. Let every man who "does not care whether Slavery is voted up, or down," vote for the representative of that principle (!) Mr. DOUGLAS. Let every man who believes Slavery to be right and desires to see it extended, vote for BRECKINRIDGE, or BELL. And let every man who looks upon SLAVERY as an intolerable wrong and a standing reproach to our Free Government, and who therefore would resist, by all legal and constitutional means, its extension over territory now free, give his voice and vote, his efforts and his influence, to ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

The Difference.

"Old Abe" is reported to have said recently, that he would like to go South, but was afraid the people of the Slave States would lynch him if he should. His reply furnishes another illustration of the proverb, "The wicked flee when no man pursueth." It is now demonstrated that a Northern candidate for the Presidency who abides by the Constitution of the country, can defend its sacred provisions in the South with as much freedom as he can at the North. Douglas denounces disunion and secession, even more pointedly in Virginia than in New Hampshire.—Texas.

And why should he not? Is disunion, or secession any less a crime in Virginia, than in New Hampshire? Or is a public expected to "talk turkey" to the people of the South; or not talk at all? What Mr. DOUGLAS said at Norfolk, and the manner in which it was received, completely explode the pretence of the Shams that the Union will be in danger if LINCOLN is elected. Mr. DOUGLAS scouted the idea that the election of LINCOLN would justify the secession of any Southern State, and the crowd applauded the sentiment. So, we venture to say, they would in any Southern State where a similar sentiment should be boldly expressed. The PEOPLE of the South are not disunionists. This whole cry of disunion is a trick of the politician's trade. A few ambitious leaders of the Southern Democracy start it, from time to time, to scare the North, and there are never wanting doughfaces among the Democracy North, to echo the cry, or do any other dirty work required of them by their Southern task-masters. But the game is pretty nearly played out. The election of Mr LINCOLN will effectually finish it.

What the News intimates that "Old Abe is reported to have said," is a weak and palpable invention. Mr. LINCOLN, himself a Southern man by birth, knows his countrymen too well to entertain, or utter such a thought. That he does not go South, East, or North, stumping for the Presidency, like his competitor (Mr. DOUGLAS,) is simply because he has too much respect for himself and for the American people to resort to such a practice. His opinions, character and public life, are before the country; and on these he is content, as are all his friends, to rest the result.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.—The courageous conduct of some of the Deputy U. S. Marshals of this State is worthy of all praise. It is a burning shame that such men are obliged to act under the directions of a stupid and totally incompetent officer, who did not "know what to do," when he saw a little knot of abolitionists making preparations to take Booth out of the city in open day light.—News, of yesterday.

Why does the News continue to pitch into the U. S. Marshal after this savage fashion? Is it from a personal grudge against LEWIS, or merely to vent its spite against our Democratic National Administration? LEWIS, no doubt, did his best to keep BOOTH in the Custom House and is doing his best to get him back again. But the public do not seem to sympathize in his efforts, while the Democratic press make fun of him.

Second Congressional District.

The nomination of Mr. REYNERT in the Second Congressional District of this State, shows plainly enough that the Democrats do not—as indeed they should not—entertain the slightest hope of success. REYNERT is a man of very moderate abilities, loose political principles and no personal strength. He has been "everything by turns and nothing long." Mr. HANCHETT, his Republican opponent, is so immeasurably his superior in every qualification for the office, that even were the District a close one, HANCHETT would carry it by a large majority.

A Neat Hit.

The Democracy of La Crosse county had a regular row in their convention last week. The fight was between the BRECKINRIDGE and DOUGLAS men, each side being anxious to endorse its candidate. Ultimately the DOUGLAS men prevailed by the close vote of 17 to 14.

One of the BRECKINRIDGE resolutions, offered by Col. RODOLF, thus administered "pepper" to the DOUGLAS men:

Resolved, That we believe in the doctrine laid down by Senator Douglas, in his speech delivered in the U. S. Senate, as reported in the Congressional Globe of June 9th, 1860, to-wit: "That whether the people of a Territory can exclude slavery prior to the formation of a State Constitution or not is a question to be decided by the Supreme Court," and as subsequently determined by the Supreme Court of the United States in this case known as the Dred Scott decision, and acquiesced in by Senator Douglas in his speech delivered Sept. 15, 1858, in which he declares that "the Dred Scott decision covers the whole question, and I receive it as law;" but we deny the doctrine as laid down by Senator Douglas in his Freeport speech delivered August 27th, 1859, in which he declares "that the people of a Territory can, by lawful means, exclude slavery from their limits previous to the formation of a Constitution."

This resolution very pointedly exposes the hollow mockery of Mr. DOUGLAS' present views on the subject of Slavery in the Territories. Under the Dred Scott decision, which Mr. DOUGLAS and the Democracy all accept, SLAVERY is legalized and protected in every foot of U. S. Territory, and the People cannot help themselves.

Presidential Stumping.

The News contrasts the silence observed by Mr. LINCOLN, since his nomination for the Presidency, with the stumping tour which Mr. DOUGLAS is making through the country, singing his own praises and explaining his principles. We think the contrast decidedly to Mr. LINCOLN'S advantage. The N. Y. World has the following remarks on the same subject:

"Mr. Douglas is too shrewd an observer to have any expectation of the Presidency on this trial; but he means to be the master spirit of the Democratic party, and cannot afford the loss of influence which would result from desertion by his own State. His harangue, elsewhere, beginning in a tone of apology, and rapidly reaching a bold defiance of the usual proprieties, is merely the circling of a bird of prey in the air preparatory to pouncing on his victim. Had Douglas lost Illinois when he stumped it against Lincoln two years ago, he would have been politically dead. He fears the same fate will overtake him if he loses it now. Only the extraordinary importance he attaches to the result in his own State, can account for his extraordinary violations of the respect he owes alike to his own position and to the high office for which he is a candidate. For he set out on this unusual course not only with a full consciousness, but with a distinct acknowledgment of its impropriety.

* * * *

This great deterioration of political manners, which we witness in this Presidential canvass—this decay of self-respect for the dignity of the highest office under our government, would be a very sad omen, if we did not encourage ourselves to think it strictly exceptional; and that, as Presidential candidates now take the stump for the first time, the offence against public decorum will not be repeated in future elections. It tends to weaken that veneration for our institutions which is one of the main pillars of their support."

ACCESSIONS TO THE REPUBLICAN CAUSE.—We hear of constant accessions to the Republican cause in this State. Here are two noticed in the last number of the Madison Journal:

GOING FOR LINCOLN AND HAMLIN.—A gentleman who has hitherto occupied a prominent position in the Democratic party, and now resides in Monroe County, in this State, says, in a private letter, dated August 27th: "I attended the Republican meeting at La Crosse, on the 22d, and listened to some first rate speeches by Secretary HARVEY and Gov. RANDALL. I think the nomination of HANCHETT a good one. For the first time, I propose (if I live,) to vote next election, a true Democratic Republican vote, uncontaminated with the miserable BUCHANAN, DOUGLAS wool-pulling Democracy."

Yours truly, "——P.——."

STILL ANOTHER.—EDMUND JUSSEN, of Columbus, in this State, brother-in-law of CARL SCHURZ, and a prominent German, has dissolved his connection with the Democracy, and will hereafter work with the Republicans for LINCOLN and HAMLIN. He is a man of influence among his countrymen, and "thrice-armed" as he is, in his new relations, he will do our cause excellent service.

FOREIGN INTERVENTION IN MEXICO.—Under this caption, and in a displayed leading article, the N. Y. Times of Tuesday morning has "the best authority for stating that the Mexican question was on the point of being peremptorily settled by a decisive intervention of four of the great powers most deeply interested in the restoration of order throughout the dominions of that distracted neighborhood. France, England, Spain and Prussia have signed a convention for the pacification of Mexico, to which they invite the adhesion of the United States, but which they propose to carry into effect without that adhesion, should the United States refuse it."

The bases upon which the new order of things is to be constructed, and which are said to have been accepted by both the clericals and constitutionalists, are stated to be, 1st: A twelve months' armistice; 2d. A general election; 3d. Religious toleration; 4th. A modified establishment of the Romish church. The Times finally says that "our own government is understood to have announced that while a pacific intervention of the sort contemplated, if it fails to command the assistance, cannot provoke the hostility of the United States, no armed interference to enforce its provisions must be made without due previous notice, communicated to the administration at Washington."

GARIBALDI A "CANUCK."—GARIBALDI is claimed as a native Canadian by L' Oracle, of Montreal, which paper makes the following statement:—"In the year 1812 a noted Iroquois chief, named GARRABALDEN, (signifying 'Mighty in War,') immigrated from Western New York to Lower Canada. He had several sons, the eldest called JOSEPH, who was called GARIBALDE by the French habitants, who could not pronounce the Iroquois correctly. GARRABALDEN died, and JOSEPH was prevailed upon by a priest to accompany him to Italy. He was educated by the priest, and received GIUSEPPE as a name instead of JOSEPH, and was taught to write his name GARIBALDI. This information was received from FRANCIS GARRIBALDE, at present living near Sorel, with whom the great General constantly corresponds. Persons still having doubts on this important matter, can satisfy themselves by applying to FRANCIS, at Sorel. It can no longer be said that Canada has not produced one great man."

A SHORT CORN CROP IN LOWER EGYPT.—The Shawneetown Illinoisan of August 24th, says: "Our information from the various counties in this part of Illinois, regarding the probable yield of the coming corn crop, is not by any means the most flattering. In many locations we hear that the late continued dry weather has played sad havoc with the growing corn, burning it up in a manner. However, there will be a great deal more than enough produced for home consumption."

EMIGRANTS.—The number of emigrants arrived at the port of New York this year, up to Wednesday, is 68,750, against 51,440 up to the same time last year. The arrivals for the week ending Wednesday were 2,772.

The Late William Wilson.

The Poughkeepsie Daily Press contains the following tribute to the memory of the late William Wilson, whose death occurred in that city on the 25th inst.:

"In the death of Mr. Wilson, whose brief obituary may be found in another column, we have lost one of our most valuable citizens. He had become, too, one of the oldest of our business men, having opened a book store in the premises now under our editorial rooms in Market street, in the year 1834, where he remained a few years alone, and then formed a co-partnership with the late veteran publisher and bookseller, Paraclete Potter. When Mr. Potter left for the West, Mr. Wilson continued the business alone, and has done so until within a few months, when declining health caused him to resign the active supervision of it into the hands of his eldest son. Mr. Wilson was a native of Perthshire, Scotland, and his thoughts and feelings were thoroughly imbued with the most noble associations of his native land, especially those which pertained to its literature of every kind. He had already assumed an honorable position in the world of letters before he left Scotland, and was an acceptable contributor to Blackwood's Magazine, The Edinburg Literary Journal, Chamber's Journal and other periodicals. After establishing himself in business here, he continued his contributions to Scottish periodicals, and wrote several exquisite poems for Tait's Magazine, over the signature of "Alpin." In a collection of Scottish poetry published some twenty years ago, several from the pen of Mr. Wilson appeared, which are remarkable for their great delicacy of sentiment, vigorous thought, and artistic construction.

Over the signature of "Allan Grant" Mr. Wilson has contributed some meritorious poems to the columns of The Albion, The Evening Post, The Knickerbocker Magazine and more recently to The Chicago Record, published by his son. The last poem written a few weeks since, while suffering from the distressing malady which terminated his life, was published in The Record. The following is a copy:

WORK IS PRAYER.

Laborare est orare.
Oh grant us faith to work, and hope to win,
When found youthhood's morning's sun is shining,
'Tis time the work of warfare to begin—
The Christian soldier's warfare wag'd with sin.

Laborare est orare.
Oh Father let our toil seem ever sweet!
When dusty birds us still the task be piying;
The task that brings us daily to thy feet,
To catch new glimpses of thy mercy seat.

Laborare est orare.
Though even the harvest toil, the day's work long,
With thankful heart's our scanty sheaves we'll gather
And strong in confidence, in trusting strong,
Still with our tears will mingle bursts of song.

Laborare est orare.
We soon must lay our earthly armour down,
And in the heavenly land are legions waiting
To raise the choral welcome of renown,
And crown us with an everlasting crown.

Mr. Wilson was passionately fond of music, and has left behind him several compositions of considerable merit. Only a few days before his death, he composed an air of great beauty, to a poem by his friend, Hew Ainslie, the venerable Scotch poet, who visited him in July.

But Mr. Wilson is better known to our citizens as one of our oldest, most attentive and laborious business men, upright in all his dealings, liberal to those in need and in the promotion of public benefactions, as far as prudence in his affairs would allow. He was one of the vestry who founded St. Paul's church, and, we believe, has been a member of that executive body ever since.

Fluent in conversation, well educated, possessed of an extensive knowledge of authors and their productions, Mr. Wilson was always a most agreeable companion for intelligent men. Retiring and unobtrusive, he was seldom seen in social life, except in his business relations; and but few knew his real worth as an intellectual man and most interesting companion. Those few who appreciated him, and who shared his confidence and friendship, will always remember with pleasure his genial good nature, his exub-rance of spirits, his fund of anecdote, and his pure and delightful social qualities as exhibited under his own roof—the elements of a true gentleman and pleasant friend. By those few he will be missed as such, and by the community at large, as one of our best esteemed business men."

MCGREGOR.—That our friends 'out west" may know that we can take care of their grain, their teams and themselves, we beg to report at this auspicious time that at McGregor there are now not less than 25 grain ware-houses, that a steam tug will constantly ply with barges to the Depot in the grain trade exclusively, that our Bluff street is now so widened and the ware-houses so improved that it will be almost impossible "to choke up" with teams as was done last fall, that we have Nine Hotels in operation, many of them of the largest class in accommodation for man and team. We have (already) about 20 produce buyers as sharp after each other as members of opposite political parties. We have Thirty-Eight stores, two-thirds of which are first class, have large stocks, and do a liberal jobbing trade with the interior—in addition to these there are grocery stores and retailers by the dozen; two auction stores; three or more agricultural implement stores; four blacksmith and wagon shops; ten lumber yards; two butcher shops; two bakeries; four millineries; five tailor shops; three harness shops; four shoe shops; one marble yard; two paint shops; two barber shops; one tannery; two saw mills; one planing mill; one foundry; two printing offices; one book bindery; two banks; three churches; one livery stable; one soap factory; two billiard saloons; three or four good restaurants and a legion of small Lager entertainments.

Added to these facilities we have a people with more of the natural "get up" in them than any equal number of humans on the globe. Vide the opinion of "Transient," in this day's Times.

Now bring along your Produce, lay in your Fall supplies of Merchandise and Lumber, subscribe for the Times if you want a safe market record and don't think it wicked to laugh occasionally—so may your days be long in the land, and your happy spirits finally wing their flight to "Dixsie!"—North Iowa Times.

MISS ABBY BARBER, a young woman residing with her mother, in Mossup, Ct., went out with a female companion, Tuesday afternoon, for the purpose of gathering whortleberries in a neighboring field. After they had set out on their return, Miss Barber remarked that she had lost her handkerchief, and left her companion to go back and look for it. Her prolonged absence alarmed her friends, and a search was instituted which resulted in finding her lifeless body in the woods some distance beyond the field where the berries were gathered. She was lying upon her back, with her handkerchief pressed closely upon her breast. No marks of violence were perceptible except a slight mark upon her neck and one wrist. Three gold rings were missing from her fingers, and a set of upper teeth secured in gold plate. Miss Barber was 24 years of age, and was employed as an operator in one of the mills.

PROBABLE MURDER.—About 10 o'clock to-day the son of James Dorris, living near the depot, in the Fourth Ward, was found lying insensible near his father's shanty. His face was considerably bruised, and a Dr. Hill was at once sent for. After an examination, the Dr. stated that the boy's skull was fractured, and that he was in a dangerous state. When the boy revived for some minutes, he said "that Mrs. Hoy had thrown a stone at him, and struck him with it." It appears that Mary Hoy is a widow, and keeps a whiskey shop near Mr. Dorris'. Some time ago Mr. Dorris' pigs got in her garden and did some mischief, and she then made threats of injuring Mr. Dorris' children. The boy is six years old, and has never been very strong.—Madison Patriot.

THE LAST DUEL in New Orleans was fought on Wednesday, between a gentleman from Mobile and a cotton broker, whose place of business is on Carondelet street. The Englishman took offence at some disparaging remarks made by the broker concerning the Queen of England, and constituted himself the champion of his sovereign.—Colt's navy revolvers, distance five paces, were the conditions of the combat. At the first fire the Englishman fell dangerously wounded in his left breast.

FATAL DUEL.—On Thursday of last week a duel was fought in the Indian Nation, between Dr. Mitchell and Dr. Gantt, opposing candidates for Congress in the late election in Arkansas, in which Mr. Gantt, the successful aspirant, was killed. Intelligence to this effect was yesterday received by relatives of the deceased living in this vicinity. The deceased was brother to George Gantt, Esq., a well known lawyer and politician of Columbus, Tenn.—St. Louis Dem., Aug. 25.

NOVEL REMEDY FOR WHOOPING-COUGH.—Great numbers of children laboring under whooping-cough now visit the gas works in Preston for the purpose of breathing the exhalations from the gas lime. It is said that all the little sufferers feel considerably relieved, and many are absolutely cured by this simple remedy.—Preston (England) Guardian.

CANAL STREET, in New Orleans, is said to be the most magnificent street in the world, being eight miles long and two hundred feet wide, with a parterre promenade in the center forty feet wide. At the crossings monuments or fountains are to be erected.

The Prince at Montreal.

MONTREAL, Aug. 25.

The illumination on Saturday was very successful. The Prince drove through the town incognito, and attended divine service at the Anglican Cathedral yesterday. He was met at the entrance by the Bishop and Clergy. The building was crowded, but the arrangements were good. The sermon was by the Bishop of Montreal.

This morning the Indian games came off at the cricket ground. The Prince arrived at 10 o'clock. The first match was at La Crosse, between two parties of Indians, and the second between the Indians and whites in which the former won. This was followed by a war dance in full costume. The Prince was much amused.

There were several thousand spectators, including the Boston Fusileers, whose band played "God Save the Queen," the men uncovered, and then "Yankee Doodle," the Prince uncovering.

The games were interrupted by a heavy shower of rain.

The levee commences at the Court House at noon.

A ball has been tendered by the New York deputation to the Prince of Wales, and accepted. It will take place on Friday evening, Oct. 12th.

In consequence of engagements already entered into by the Prince, he can only spend Friday, Saturday and Sunday in New York. He will embark from Portland.

The following is a copy of the address:

His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales:

May it please your Royal Highness, on behalf of the citizens of New York, we have the honor to request your acceptance of a ball upon the occasion of your visit to our city, at such time as it may suit your convenience.

We hope that in the view of the deep and universal admiration felt throughout the land for the public and private virtues of your Royal mother, and of the highest respect entertained for yourself as the heir to the Throne of a great country, united to our own by so many ties of history, language, consanguinity, interests and principle, you will accept the invitation which we respectfully tender to you

(Signed) JOHN A. KING, Chairman.
HAMILTON FISH,
JOHN JACOB ASTOR, JR.,
ROBERT B. MINTURN,
WILSON G. HUNT,
ROBERT LENOX KENNEDY,
M. B. FIELD, Secretary.

The Prince's levee was numerously attended. Several addresses were presented.

It is settled that the Prince opens the exhibition at Hamilton on Wednesday evening week, and leaves the same evening for Chicago, where he remains one day, thence by way of the prairies to St. Louis, Cincinnati, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, Boston and Portland.

It has been arranged that the Prince accepts a ball at New York instead of a dinner.

IT WAS THE habit of Lord Eldon, when attorney-general, to close his speech with some remarks justifying his own character. At the trial of Horne Tooke, speaking of his own reputation he said, "It is the little inheritance I have to leave my children, and I will have it unimpaired, here he shed tears, and I will leave it unimpaired," here he shed tears, and to the astonishment of all present, Milford, the solicitor-general, began to weep. "Just look at Milford," said a bystander to Horne Tooke. "What on airth is he crying for?" Tooke replied, "He's a crying to think what a little inheritance Eldon's children are like ely to get."

A LATE well known member of the Scottish bar, when a youth, was somewhat of a dandy, and somewhat sharp and short in his temper. He was going to pay a visit in the country, and was making a great fuss about the preparation and putting up of his habiliments. His old aunt was much annoyed by all this bustle, stopped him with this somewhat contemptuous question: "Whaur's this your gaun, Robby, that ye mak sic a grand ware about your claiss?" The young man lost his temper, and pettishly replied, "I am going to the devil." "Deed, then, Robby," was the quiet answer, "ye need na be sae nice; he'll tak ye as ye are."

FOR PICKLES TO KEEP THROUGH THE YEAR.—One gallon of vinegar to two of water, and a tea cup of salt to one gallon of the liquid. Scald and skim the brine thoroughly, and put it away for use. As you pick the cucumbers, put them into cold water, and let them stand on the stove until they come to a scalding heat; then drop them carefully into the brine. When wanted in winter, let them soak a few hours in cold water, then put them in vinegar and they will be very nice.

Boots and Shoes.

Dealers in Boots and Shoes,

THE CELEBRATED COPPER TOE!

WADSWORTH & WELLS,
WHOLESALE DEALERS IN
Boots and Shoes,
60 LAKE STREET, CHICAGO. 60.

WE OWN THE EXCLUSIVE RIGHT for the sale of MITCHELL'S PATENT METALLIC COPPER TOES AND SHOES for and within the States of Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota, and hereby give notice that all parties dealing in these goods within the above States, without having first arranged with us and by our consent, are and will be direct infringers upon our EXCLUSIVE rights, and that as soon as we are advised of any infringement, shall demand proper and immediate redress.

We have made extensive arrangements with the most celebrated manufacturers, whereby we can fully supply the increasing demand with the best qualities of Tinned Boots and Shoes from our store in Chicago, each pair of which will be stamped and labeled with our name.

We shall recognize no Tipped goods within either the above States, but such are thus stamped and supplied by us.

We will warrant in all instances one pair of child's copper-tipped shoes to out wear two and oftentimes three pair from pairs of equal quality without tips, as can be shown by very many testimonials, while the expense is but a trifle more, making an actual average saving to the consumer of near two hundred per cent.

Merchants and dealers in Boots and Shoes within the above States, buying their goods of Messrs. Stebbins Boots and Shoe Company, supplied and properly stamped by Wadsworth & Wells, for sale by ATKINS, STEELE & WHITE, and BRADLEY & METCALF, Milwaukee.

The New American Watch.

IN ORDER TO MEET THE REQUIREMENTS of Gentlemen who prefer a thinner watch than those usually made by us, we have lately issued a new style of watch on the three-quarter plate model, especially designed for this purpose.

In establishing this new series, it has also been our design to produce a watch in every way superior to the best and highest priced products of the most reputable of English and Swiss watch manufacturers; and no labor or expense has been spared to this end.

In all respects of fine and durable material, of external and internal finish, accurate compensation and adjustment, of mathematically just proportions, and of practical results, our new three-quarter plate watch challenges competition with any in the world,

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!

DON'T FAIL TO PROCURE MRS Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. It has no equal on earth. It greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing inflamation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful Female Physicians in New England, and has been used with never failing success in millions of cases.

We believe it is the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arises from teething or any other cause.

If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of bottles are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well tried remedy.

Pimples on the Face and Skin Diseases

ARE GENERALLY CAUSED BY ANImalculæ burrouched in the skin. Dr. Trask's Magnetic Ointment, by its powerful and penetrating qualities, destroys every vestige of them, restoring health and beauty to the skin wherever applied, removing Tan and Freckles.

Inflamed or Sore Eyes.

A. G. Cushing, of South Bend, Ind., says: "The Magnetic Ointment is the only remedy in use here for INFLAMED EYES. The Author of our county has so much faith in its curative powers in this disease, that he not only highly recommends it, but offers to forfeit the amount paid for it in each case, if it fails of a cure."

Piles.

Piles which are at this season of the year particularly troublesome, are cured at once by Trask's Magnetic Ointment; apply to the parts affected and smell of the back.

Nervous or Sick Headache.

Apply the Ointment freely to the forehead and temples and back of the neck, also to the soles of the feet and palms of the hands. It will relieve the severest headache in thirty minutes.

☞ Sold by all medicine dealers.

Anecdotes of Dogs.

A SHEPHERD'S DOG.—A friend of ours who owns a large ranch and several hundred head of sheep is the fortunate possessor of one of the best dogs in this State. The intelligent creature was brought up among the sheep, nourished upon ewes' milk, his whole life being passed with the flock and devoted to its defence. He has been taught to open and shut the fold into which they are driven at night, and he cares for them with all the apparent thoughtfulness that a human creature could display. In the morning, when the flock is driven to the field, he goes with it, selects some commanding place, and watches the sheep during the whole day, driving up the stragglers, and allowing no one but those with whom he is acquainted to approach them. Should a ewe drop a lamb and pass on with the herd without noticing it, as she sometimes will, he has been known to take it up, and carrying it after her, compel her to take care of it. At night he drives the sheep into the pen, fastens the door after him, and seating himself in their midst, lays there watching them all night.—In the morning he unfastens the door, drives out his charge to the pasture, and keeps watch and ward until night comes. In fact, so faithful is he, that his master frequently absents himself from the ranch, for days together, with perfect reliance upon his dog to find all safe when he returns.—California Paper.

A DOG'S MEMORY.—The memory of dogs is quite extraordinary, and only equalled by that of the elephant. Mr. Swainson, in his work on the instinct of animals, gives the following proof of this. He says that "a spaniel belonging to the Rev. H—— N——, being always told that he must not follow his master to church on Sundays, used, on those days, to set off long before service and lie concealed under the hedge, so near the church that at length the point was yielded to him." My little parlor dog never offers to go with me on a Sunday; although on other days he is perfectly wild to accompany me on my walks. In my younger days I had a favorite dog which always accompanied me to church. My mother seeing that he attracted too much of my attention, ordered the servant to shut him out every Sunday morning. This was done once, but never afterward; for he concealed himself early every Sunday morning, and I was sure to find him either under my seat at church, or else at the church door. That dogs clearly distinguish the return of Sunday cannot be doubted.—Anecdotes of Dogs, by Edward Jesse.

THE BLOODHOUND.—The bloodhound really possesses an unerring power of scenting the blood of a wounded animal, man or beast. Mr. Grantly Berkely has long been celebrated for his breed. Stonehenge imagines "the old true Enulishman staghound" to be "nearly, if not quite extinct," although he says there were some of these until very lately in the pack of the Devon and Somerset staghounds. He is quite mistaken. At Chillingham Castle, where even the aboriginal breed of white wild cattle is maintained, Lord Ossulton, now Earl of Tankerville, has carefully maintained this noble race of dogs.—London Literary Gazette.

THE MAIL MEN over the Santa Fe route found, on a late trip, the bodies of four persons, three men and a woman, who had been murdered by the Indians, lying by the roadside. Beside the body of a woman sat a dog, watching eagerly her face, as if to catch a smile, or a word of recognition. Encircling its neck was a collar bearing the name, "Hoose." The officer in command of the party took the dog by force away from the place where they buried the dead, and was bringing him in with the intention of keeping him, but when they had proceeded about twenty-five miles he escaped, and started back toward the place from whence he had been taken. When the mail again passed, the faithful creature lay dead on the grave of his mistress. The troops took charge of the wagon and the goods that were left, and will take them to Fort Riley.

SUICIDE OF A DOG.—The Baltimore Clipper of last week says:

"By the following, it will be seen that the suicide mania has extended to the canine race. On Monday afternoon a German visited the county wharf, for the purpose of purchasing wood, and while selecting the article, a dog approached him and commenced jumping about in a playful manner. The German supposing the animal would bite, drove him away with a cane. The dog, however, returned, and again commenced playing with the German, and by whining and other movements the German concluded that the dog would do him harm. He accordingly struck him on the head, when the dog left his unkind acquaintance, and approaching the edge of the wharf, gave one plaintive howl and then sprang into the water, and after a short struggle sank to the bottom. The above was witnessed by several respectable gentlemen, who are considerably puzzled to know what induced Carlo to commit suicide.—Sept. 28.

A FAST DOG.—Henry A. Ewers, of this town, left on Friday for Aztalan, Wisconsin, where he had purchased a farm. He owned a small dog, which he gave to Henry Briggs before he left. The dog followed Mr. Ewers to the depot in this town, and upon the cars leaving, followed on after, overtaking them at South Deerfield, before they left that station. The distance run by the dog was eight miles, and the time occupied twenty-two minutes, over twenty miles an hour.—Mr. Ewers concluded that such a faithful friend was not likely to be parted with lightly, and took the dog into the cars with him. —Greenfield Gazette.

A DOG AND SNAKE STORY.—The Manchester Mirror relates that George F. Berry, a boy thirteen years old, while out berrying on Monday, was attacked by a "six foot snake of a dark hue and red stripe around his neck," which wound twice around the boy's body, fastening both his arms in his coils. The lad's dog seeing his master's danger, rushed to his aid, biting and tearing a strip off the snake's back. The boy got relieved from the deadly grasp and took to his heels, but the snake coiled around the dog, and would have crushed him if he had not fought like a tiger.

SOME DOG.—A gentleman left Holyoke on Friday afternoon for this city in a buggy, taking a favorite dog with him. As they progressed towards Williamansett the gentleman amused himself by plaguing the dog till he had got the animal into a state of complete worry. Presently the gentleman's hat blew off, and he went back after it, leaving the horse and buggy standing in the road; then the dog took advantage of his master's absence to jump into the buggy and start the animal, who trotted gaily toward the river, followed by the gentleman yelling "whoa," to no purpose. His faithful dog now took a position upon the seat, where he could keep an eye upon his master and another on the steed, to see fair play in the race. They approached the Connecticut river, into which the waggish brute drove, and, keeping his seat, floated out behind the horse, who swam, after getting beyond his depth. They were seen, at this juncture, by persons on the south shore, who put off in a boat and got them safely to land—the dog in high glee at his successful experiment in driving—and then went back after their owner, who will no doubt, leave that dog behind the next time he goes to ride. The best of this story is its truth.—Springfield Republican.

HOW LADIES SHOULD DRESS.—We find in All the Year Round the following views expressed in regard to ladies dress:

"As you look from your windows in Paris, observe the first fifty who pass; forty have noses depressed in the middle, a small quantity of dark hair, and a swarthy complexion, but then what a toilet! Not only suitable for the season, but the age and complexion of the wearer. How neat the feet and hands! How well the clothes are put on, and more than all, how well they suit each other!

Before English women can dress perfectly, they must have the French, especially in color. One reason why we see colors ill-arranged in England is that the different articles are purchased, each for its own imagined virtues, and without any thought of what is to be worn with it. Women, while shopping, buy what pleases the eye on the counter, forgetting what they have at home. That parasol is pretty, but it will kill, by its color, one dress in the buyer's wardrobe, and be unsuitable for others. To be magnificently dressed costs money; but to be dressed with taste is not expensive. It requires good taste, knowledge and refinement. Never buy an article unless it is suitable to your age, habit, style, and the rest of your wardrobe. Nothing is more vulgar than to wear costly dresses with a common delaine, or cheap lace with expensive brocades.

What colors, it may be asked, go best together? Green with violet; gold with dark orimson or lilac; pale blue with scarlet; pink with black or white; and gray with scarlet or pink. A cold color generally requires a warm tint to give life to it. Gray and pale blue, for instance, do not combine well, both being cold colors. White and black are safe wear, but the latter is not favorable to dark or pale complexions. Pink is, to some skins, the most becoming; not, however, if there is much color in the cheeks and lips, and if there be even a suspicion of red in either hair or complexion. Peach color is perhaps one of the most elegant colors worn. Maize is very becoming, particularly to persons with dark hair and eyes. But whatever the colors or materials of the entire dress, the details are all in all; the lace around the bosom and sleeves, the flowers—in fact, all that furnishes the dress. The ornaments in the head must harmonize with the dress. If trimmed with black lace, some of the same should be worn in the head, and the flowers, which are worn in the hair, should decorate the dress."

MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 31, 1860.

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Connecticut Dem. State Convention.

HARTFORD, Aug 30—3 P. M.

The Democratic State Convention held here yesterday, resulted in the nomination of a clear Douglas electoral ticket. There were some 400 delegates present. The Breckinridge wing being in the minority. A good deal of ill-feeling interspersed with personalities, characterized the debate between the two wings. The following is the electoral ticket: Electors at large, Sam'l Colt, of Hartford, and Jno. J. Russasse. Resolutions were passed endorsing the Charleston-Baltimore platform, and recommending the same for adoption by the democrats of Connecticut, and endorsing Douglas and Johnson as the regular nominated candidates of the Democratic party.

An effort was made to affix a clause to one of the resolutions, instructing the delegates to vote for some other candidate than Douglas. In order to defeat Lincoln, but this was rejected by ayes 152, nays 220.

There will probably be a Breckinridge convention called, and another ticket nominated.

Connecticut State Rep. Convention.

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 30—3 P. M.

The Republican State Convention met here this morning, with a full attendance from all parts of the State Hon. J. F. Hancock, of the New Haven Palladium, was chosen President, with Vice Presidents and Secretaries from every county. A warm discussion ensued upon the form of the call for the convention, which was ended by a most exciting scene of unanimity and enthusiasm —all differences being reconciled at once.—After a tempest of cheers and rejoicings, the convention adjourned for dinner.

Detroit Items.

DETROIT, Aug. 30—3 P. M.

Patterson's warehouse and several adjoining wooden buildings, were destroyed by fire yesterday; Loss $10,000; partly insured.

Extensive preparations are being made for the Republican Mass Meeting on Tuesday next, and the reception of Mr. Seward. It promises to be the largest demonstration of this campaign.

More Gold from Pike's Peak.

ST. JOSEPH, Aug. 30—3 P. M.

Twenty-three thousand dollars in dust, was brought in by express from the Peak, last night. There is no general news of any importance. Mining news encouraging. One quartz mill in Lake Gulch had taken for three weeks, $2,300 per week, with a gang of six hands, and other mills are doing well. New diggings discovered, but to what extent is not known.

Connecticut Democratic Convention.

HARTFORD, Aug. 29.

The Democratic State Convention is now in session in this city, for the nomination of an electoral ticket. The Doughnuts are in a decided majority. Dwight W. Pardee, of Hartford, is President. The morning session has been mostly occupied in the organization. A motion to place on the ticket two Bell and Everett electors, was voted down by a large majority.

Lamentable Accident.

WHEELING, Va., Aug. 29.

A very lamentable accident occurred to-day resulting in the death of Mrs. Daniel Steenrod, and probably fatally injuring her son, Hon. Lewis Steenrod, of this county. They were near the city in a carriage driven by a colored servant, when, the horse taking fright, they were precipitated down an embankment.

Nets York Matters.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.

Arrangements are being made for fights between Jonny Roach, of this city, and John'y Glade, of Boston, and between Harry Lazarus and Jimmy Fagan, of St. Louis.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

New York Matters.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30—9 P. M.

JAS. T. Brady accepts the Breckinridge gubernatorial nomination, with the understanding that he will withdraw in case of a union of the democracy.

A man named Lawrence Weaver was killed yesterday, by falling from the roof of a house.

Catherine Goodman, aged 17, who took poison Monday, died yesterday, at the hospital.

Chas. Kingsbury, steward of the steamer Persia, died suddenly on board of that vessel yesterday, just as she was on the point of sailing.

A boy named Wm. Kennedy was killed last evening on Spruce street. He fell through a hatchway from the 4th story.

Four of the Cuban merchants are under arrest, charged with defrauding the underwriters, by designedly wrecking the bark E. A. Kinsman, while on a voyage to Havana. Martin, the wherryman, starts this afternoon in a wherry for Albany.

Judge Douglas arrived last evening at Raleigh, N. C., where he speaks to-day. He received an enthusiastic reception.

The Douglas State Convention met yesterday at the St. Nicholas, to make arrangements for the Presidential Campaign. Nothing was done about a fusion with the Breckinridgers.

Durkee & Co.'s Chemical Works, Brooklyn, were partially burned this morning. Loss $30,000.

A letter from Henderson, Texas, gives a list of the sufferers by the recent fire there, making a clear loss of upwards of $200,000 over all insurance.

A prize fight arranged between Mr. Dowd and Michael O'Neill for $300, at Red Hook, Brooklyn, was broken up this morning.—The principals are in custody.

Matters at St. Paul.

ST. PAUL, August 30—9 P. M.

An Irishman, named Patrick Nolan, drowned himself yesterday in the river, in the upper part of the city, near the same place where a German girl committed suicide a few days since. The reason for this act was that his wife did not have dinner ready in time.

The residence of Mr. Charles Bigelow, who has been absent from the city about three weeks, was broken open during his absence and the furniture destroyed in an outrageous manner. Several hundred dollars worth have thus been rendered valueless. It is supposed to have been committed by some one against whom Mr. B. had instituted legal proceedings.

Meeting of Millers and Distillers.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, Aug. 30.

The convention of millers and distillers met this P. M., at this place. The attendance was large, numbering delegates from Baltimore, New York and Philadelphia, in the east and many of the Western States.—The following are their officers: President, H H Culberton, of Troy; Vice-President, S. S. McKee, of Upper Sandusky; Secretary's, D. Lecor and W. C. Vanderbilt, of Cincinnati.

Mr. Kellogg, of N. Y., was invited to state the object of meeting. He arose and stated that too much whiskey was made for the business to be profitable; that a previous Convention had recommended that the amount be reduced fifty, if not seventy per cent; that is all that would make distilling a good and safe business.

The Prince at Montreal.

MONTREAL, Aug. 30—9 P. M.

The torch light procession was a very brilliant affair.

The Boston Fusileers left this morning.

News unimportant.

SAD SIGHT.—A Mr. Trask, of Maine, was in the city yesterday, selling pamphlets describing a terrible accident that rendered him a touching spectacle and an object of commiseration. He was thrown from a horse about a year ago, and the cords of his neck were so lacerated that his head has ever since hung down—his forehead pressing on his breast. In this posture he has to turn his back to any person that he would look at.—Troy Whig, 25th.

WM. B. ASTOR WORTH $40,000,000.—The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Press writes:

"Some indiscreet individual having ventured to intimate through the papers that Wm. B Astor is worth only about five-and-twenty millions of dollars, a friend of Mr. A. repels the injurious slander by stating that he is worth forty millions at least, and that the rate of three millions per annum. I noticed Mr. A. yesterday, walking up Broadway, on the shilling side, covered with a six shilling straw hat, and wearing a suit of clothes such as anywhere could be purchased for twenty dollars. Mr. Astor had latterly taken to giving superb dinners."

Passengers, Freight and Mails.

THE PACKET LINE IS COMPOSED of the Steam Packets

Favorite, Frank Steele, Winona, and Aeolian,

Acknowledged to be the best boats for the trade upon the Upper Mississippi, being of lighter draft than any now running.

The Line carries the United States Mail, and has been established a daily connection since it was established, with the trains, either way, upon the La Crosse & Milwaukee Railroad.

Shippers from Milwaukee will see that this is the only reliable Line of Boats for through or for local way-business during the season, thus trip without delays, while by any other route delays are unavoidable.

One of the above Boats will leave La Crosse every evening, on the arrival of the L. C. P. M. train from Milwaukee, and returning arrive at La Crosse in season to connect with the Express Passenger train, which leaves at 9 A. M.

D. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC A preparation of IRON in union with Oxygen and Carbon by combination in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and rendered a specific by the wonderful cures of thousands daily proves that no preparation of iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, dyspepsia, and all nervous affections, the sallow complexion indicate its necessity, while the florid complexion indicates its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Impotence in all maladies of the kidneys, this preparation has proved positively curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Chronic Liver Complaints, Chronic Headeches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, Female Irregularities, whether the result of acute disease or of the confirmed diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved sufficient to establish its superiority over all others. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in society, and just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are situated in Philadelphia. Others of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and diversified ailments, which baffle description when the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds and for reasons familiar to the profession, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary; for unlike the coal oxides it is vivorously tonic, without being exciting; overstimulating, and generally irregularly efficient, even in the most obstinate cases of consumption, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting the nausea of cathartics.

In this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual, and terminates a passage of the bowels, during which it also assumes to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In dyspepsia unattended as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhœa, even when advanced to dysentery, constituting both, one of the most astonishing.

In the most pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and resultant hectic, which generally indicate incipient Consumption, even in the last advanced stage, as certified by physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this combined iron and alterative has proved effect of the most beneficial character, and by the restoration of healthy and well-balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known disadvantages.

The above Pills cannot be be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly alarming during

In Consumption, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more delicately—as they invariably will be found, by the most distressing pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Typhus Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West will probably be one of high and useful usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully developed effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of a rough, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box, and for sale by druggists generally. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

The wheat market was steady and quite active during the forenoon to-day, sales amounting to about 50,000 bus at 91c for No. 2 spring in store. 89c for No. 2 in store; 98@91c for Club, and 95c for Extra delivered. Shippers having filled out their cargoes, and no unengaged tonnage in port, the market became dull in the afternoon, and closed weak, buyers offering only 90c for No. 1.

There was a better demand for flour, and we note sales of some 500 bbls at 4,85@4,75 for good country and city Extra. Very choice brands would bring $5.

Coarse grains were quiet, and as far as we could learn without change.

The receipts of wheat to day, including our own, were 49,105 bus, that is for the 24 hours ending T A. M.; since then four large trains have arrived, bringing in about 70,000 bus to be included in the report for to-morrow. The shipments to-day, including flour, am't to 82,755 bus.

Freights were very firm at yesterday's advance. The prop. Niagara, the only unengaged vessel in port was chartered at 15c for wheat to Buffalo. There was a rumor of a charter at 16c, but it was not authenticated.

The rates on flour by the lakes are $1,10 to New York and $1,25 to Boston. By rail they are 10c less, but will probably go up to the lake rates to-morrow.

NOT TAXES.—After all its bragging the Chicago Press & Tribune does not take up our offer to bet a new hat that there will be more wheat marketed at Milwaukee from the crop of 1860 than at Chicago. The Press & Tribune possesses more discretion than we had given it credit for. We had flattered ourself with the expectation of sporting a new beaver at the expense of that concern next fall.

CHICAGO MARKET, AUGUST 29TH.—Receipts of flour and grain at Chicago, yesterday, and the sources of supply, will be seen by the following statement:

	Flour, bbls.	Wheat, bus.	Corn, bus.	Oats, bus.	Barley, bus.	Rye, bus.
Canal	446	39300	13032	1200	26	...

In reference to the market the Press & Tribune says:

The receipts of wheat to-day were only 97,231 bushels, and the market opened dull and lower, under the influence of an advance in freights. An active demand by shippers, however, tended to stiffen prices, and the market closed firm, with sales of 30,000 bushels, spring at 88@88½c. Winter wheat 87½c, and 1@2c lower. The transportations in all grades amounted to about 150,000 bushels, at 95@90c for No. 1 Red; 88c for No. 2 Red; for the latter 84½@85c for No. 1 Spring, 81@84½c for No. 2 Spring; 74c for Rejected Spring. The demand for flour was good, but holders were asking higher prices, and the transactions were light, at $4,40@4,60 for low grade spring extras, and $5@5,25 for spring superfine.—Good Spring extra, and Winter superfine.—The corn market was generally dull and 2@3c lower. At the close, however, there was a more urgent inquiry, and the market was firm. The transactions amounted to about 50,000 bushels, at 34½@35c for No. 2 Canal afloat; 33½@34c for No. 1 in store; and 33@34c for No. 2. Oats were neglected, and ½@1c lower. Rye quiet. Barley more active, with sales of good to prime at 55@59c on track. The supply of Timothy Seed continues good, and the market was active at a decline of about 5c—sales of common to prime ranging from $2 @2,15. But prime is in good demand and firm. Hides quiet and unchanged.

Owing to an active demand for freight room and a scarcity of vessels, freights advanced 1@2c—the rates being 15c for wheat to Buffalo by sail, and 15@16c by steam; 20c to Chicago and Kingston; and 18c to Toronto by steam and sail.

THE HOG TRADE.—Prospects are not favorable for a large hog crop, so far as numbers are concerned, but from the excellence and weight of the corn crop, hogs will be fed fat in the season, and they will be large and fat. One of our packers has already bought about 10,000 head for November and December delivery, at $6 net, to average 200 lbs, none smaller than 180 lbs net. These are large hogs; but the risk taken is a great one; should a decline of 50c per 100 take place, it will be a loss of $10,000 to him; but an advance to $6.50 will on the other hand put $10,000 in his pocket. The same packer has also purchased some 2,000 head of stock hogs, at about $4 gross, which will be fattened on corn at about 10c per bushel, in the fields of Illinois and Iowa. Another city dealer has also bought about 1,000 head largely, at a full range of $2.50@4.00 gross. It would seem that now, when provisions are in such small supply and buoyant, is hardly a good time for hog buyers to contract at justifiable prices.—Missouri Democrat.

HEAVY RECEIPTS AT BUFFALO.—The Commercial Advertiser of Monday says: "The total receipts of breadstuffs since Saturday, at this port, flour reduced to wheat, aggregate 627,026 bushels.

FLOUR ON THE RAIL.—The Rochester Express of Monday evening says that 6,000 barrels of flour have been shipped east, from that city, on the Central Road since Saturday noon.
